The Colts tied it up in their half of the fifth by clever base running and the kind of baseball that counts. Mattis hit to left and Dobson advanced him with his neat sacrifice. Finneran, trying to keep Mattis hugging second, threw to Babb who'was covering the bag, and the manager missed the throw, the ball hiting the runner, allowing Mattis to advance to third, from which point he scored when Cowan

PRIZES FOR BEST

Committee Named to Distribute Fund Offered by Three Newspapers.

In order to create a spirit of rivalry between the several gangs employed on the road between Old Point and Richmond, and to secure the best possible work at the least possible the Virginia Peninsula Good Roads Association has appointed a prize committee, which will award the three prizes donated by the following newspapers: Times-Dispatch, $100; Newport News Press, $50; Williamsburg Gazette, $25.

The conditions under which the lows: First prize, to the foreman of the gang constructing the best sandclay road, including grades, drainage and fills, at the lowest cost per mile. Second prize, to the foreman construct-second prize, to the foreman constructing the next best road, and third prize, to the next best road, and third prize, to the next best.

The committee which will award the prizes is composed of the following members of the association: P. L. Spencer, Williamsburg; T. H. Geddy, Williamsburg; J. A. Potts, Barhamsville, F. C. Stewart, Lanexa. Following are the men in charge of the gangs which will compete: Carter Cowles, Diascond; Joe Woodward, Barhamsville; G. W. Moran, New Kent county; W. S. Hitchens, Williamsburg. By next Monday it is expected that two more gangs will be at work.

A circular letter has been sent by M. C. Armstrong, chairman of the committee on streets, roads and parks of the Newport News Chamber of Commerce, to each of the foremen now engaged in building the road, notifying them of the prizes offered. Not only will a friendly rivalry be created among the several foremen, but, it is believed, a better grade of road will be constructed for less money and in less time because of the prizes offered. Within a few weeks it is hoped to have the road completed.
